

NJ No Call law is the best law that ever been enacted in regard to that issue. It should be kept in its present and very effective form. This is our will; It is our choice; No one forced us to file; This is the real democracy. If FCC wants, it could strengthen this law to protect us further, not weakened it.